HE'S COMING BACK!

I dreamed that I sat alongside other people on a curbside. We were there a while. We were dusty, dirty but content. We sat and waited.

Suddenly a shadow reflected in front of me on the ground. The sun was high and hot. The shadow grew larger as the individual came closer to us. Without warning, I felt a hand on my right shoulder. I don't know how I knew but, I knew it was Jesus. I turned to look up, but He stepped past me, petted my shoulder and said, "Not yet. I'll be back for you!"

He walked West and I had joy knowing He was coming back for us. He was in a hurry and we knew He had something to do West. He never allowed us to see His face. We only saw Him from behind.
